Full Description:

This wonderful adventure will take you to the discovery of Liguria, an Italian region that is north west of Tuscany. On our way we'll enjoy a short visit to Pisa and its legendary Miracle Square with the leaning Tower, one of the most visited and popular Italian monuments. We'll then drive to La Spezia to take the local train or ferry. We'll stop in all of the five villages to discover their unique beauty. We'll be in Riomaggiore and its famous castle, and Manarola, the oldest of the Cinque Terre, with swimming and diving ops (bring your swim suit). Next stop will be in Corniglia, the highest village and the only place where you can see all of the five villages that make up the Cinque Terre.

In this village we'll enjoy a light lunch and local wine tasting. After lunch tour will continue on to Vernazza, registered in the UNESCO world heritage sites. Last stop will be in Monterosso: we'll visit Fagina beach, the only sandy beach of the Cinque Terre. Kids and families are welcome!
