Itinerary:

10:00 am

You will meet the Fun in Tuscany guide at the equestrian statue in Piazza della Signoria.

10:15 am

Tours begins in Piazza San Firenze. From Piazza San Firenze, we'll pass by Piazza della Signoria and Loggia del Porcelino, heading to the medieval Palazzo Davanzati and the beautiful renaissance Palazzo Strozzi. Next stop will be in Piazza San Giovanni for a great picture of the Duomo and the Giotto Tower. We'll then direct our way to Piazza Santa Maria Novella. Next stop will be in front of Chiesa d'Ognissanti. We'll cross the river on Ponte Santa Trinita to get into Oltrarno. We'll visit Piazza Santo Spirito and stop by Palazzo Pitti before heading to Ponte Vecchio. On the way we'll see part of the Vasarian Corridor. We'll be then at Porta San Niccolo'.

11:15 am

After a great panoramic photo at Piazzale Michelangelo, we'll climb over Chiesa di San Miniato al Monte before coming back down to the river and cross it on Ponte alle Grazie. On our way we'll see the Biblioteca Nazionale and Basilica of Santa Croce where once a year the florentine soccer games are still played. We'll go to see the Brunelleschi Dome, and the following square Piazza della Repubblica, the original center of the roman colony, Forentia. We'll see the beautiful church Orsanmichele and then we'll stop at Casa di Dante, author of the famous "Divine Comedy".

12:15 pm

Tour will be over at Museo del Bargello, back on Piazza San Firenze.

Note:

All scheduled times are an approximation and can vary slightly based on situations out of our control (traffic, weather, etc.)

Full Description:

Our fun and educative golf-car citytour offers you the chance to enjoy the most famous landmarks of Florence just by sitting on the comfortable seats of a silent electric car. Rain or shine, that's the best way to see our beautiful city! We'll ride from Piazza San Firenze, with the magnificent Badia Fiorentina and Bargello, to reach Piazza della Signoria, with its imposing Palazzo Vecchio and the statue of Michelangelo's David. Tour will continue on with a stop at Palazzo Strozzi, the typical renaissance family palace. On our way we'll see the Duomo, the Baptistery and the Giotto Tower. We'll then see the Santa Maria Novella basilica and Ognissanti church. We'll cross the river on Ponte Santa Trinita to admire Piazza Santo Spirito and its basilica. After a picture at the Pitti Palace, we'll follow the Vasarian Corridor to the Ponte Vecchio and we'll direct our way to the medieval San Niccolo' gateway which is along the river. We'll climb the hill and reach the panoramic view at the Michelangelo Square and the ancient monastery of S.Miniato al Monte. Back down to the river, we'll stop by the Santa Croce basilica and the stunning Orsanmichele church. Along the ride you will be entertained by an informative english speaking tour guide with a few details about each monuments that will let you see them from an unique and original perspective.
